

Rules for a Longer Life Expectancy . . .

1. Never give yourself a haircut after three margaritas.
2. You need only two tools. WD-40 and duct tape. If it doesn't move and it should, use WD-40. If it moves and shouldn't, use the tape .
3. The five most essential words for a healthy, vital relationship "I apologize" and "you are right."
4. Everyone seems normal until you get to know them.
5. When you make a mistake, make amends immediately. It's easier to eat crow while it's still warm.
6. Some really good advice your mother gave you was, "Go! You might meet somebody!"
7. If he/she says you are too good for him/her, believe them.
8. Learn to pick your battles. Ask yourself: Will this matter one year from now? How about one month? One week? One day?
9. Never pass up an opportunity to pee.
10. If you woke up breathing, congratulations! You have another chance!
11. Living well really is the best revenge. Being miserable because of a bad or former relationship just might mean that the other person was right about you.
12. Work is good, but it's not that important.
13. Don't judge folks by their relatives.
14. Always drink upstream from the heard.
15. And finally... Be really nice to your friends. You never know when you are going to need them to empty your bedpan.
